	SECURE	WORKING TOWARDS	STILL TO DEVELOP	Evidence and development
Pupils who are developing spiritua	lly are likel			ne or all of the following characteristics:
A set of values, principles and beliefs, which may or may not be religious, which inform their perspective on life and their patterns of behaviour;	х			Very clear values across the school and supported by all staff School values are respect, kindness, co-operation, responsibility, perseverance, honesty. Assemblies linked to one of these values each half term. Whole school reward system based around our school values with Celebration Assembly where merit certificates are awarded linked to values and collecting house points for effort and showing our school values. Half termly whole school homework based around values which have contributed to displays. If a child does not adhere to our school values then there is a clear warning system. There are positive principles and beliefs in school by a clear ethos. Discover, Inspire, Nurture and Grow is our school headline. There are collaborative displays around the school encouraging our belief that we are all one family working together to be the best we can be.
An awareness and understanding of their own and others' beliefs;	Х			RE Curriculum and worship Assemblies ensure children are aware and understanding of different types of worship, beliefs and rekigions. Y5 Trip to Mosque 2017 Whole school Christingle service at church Dec 2016
A respect for themselves and for others;	Х			Golden rules, class charters circle time, assemblies, school values
A sense of empathy with others, concern and compassion;	Х			Clear support of others • playground friends creating games for younger children to play. • Friendship stop fundraising projects e.g. Winston's wish, 10 acres of forest in South America, NSPCC, fund raising, race for life, cat rescue (led by individual children and school council) Assembly stories modelling compassion and empathy Foodbank assembly and collection during Harvest Festival. Christmas shoebox assembly and appeal
An ability to show courage in defense of their beliefs;	Х			Show and tell, circle time, RE & PSHCE curriculum Writing persuasively about beliefs in English
A readiness to challenge all that would constrain the human spirit, for example, poverty of aspiration, lack of self-confidence and belief, moral neutrality or indifference, force, fanaticism, aggression, greed, injustice, narrowness of vision, self-interest, sexism, racism and other forms of discrimination;	Х			Circle time discussions show pupils very aware of importance to challenge. PSHE – particularly Y5 unit on stereotyping PSHE - Make me a superhero
An appreciation of the intangible – for example, beauty, truth, love, goodness, order, as well as for mystery, paradox and ambiguity;		Х		RE planning in y3 in particular, assemblies
A respect for insight as well as knowledge and reason;	Х			RE & Science Curriculum
An expressive and/or creative impulse;	Х			Art – visiting artists, art week, art club. Artsmark silver award Displays around school are beautiful and inspiring Creative competitions E.g. design decoration for xmas tree. Creative writing (dazzle board) Homework that can be chosen from a range so that children can build on strengths
An ability to think in terms of the 'whole' – for example, concepts such as harmony, interdependence, scale, perspective; and an understanding of feelings and		Х		Aware of how their/others feelings and emotions impact e.g. through friendship circles, playground friends, buddy bench. Sharing friends worries through bubble time. Our school values promote thinking of the 'whole' by being kind to each other, respecting everyone in our school, persevering with a task to gain independence. As a school we are always thinking about how we make others' feel emotions and their likely impact.				and this is promoted through assemblies etc., but also through our day to day teaching as it is an expectation.

Schools that are encouraging pupi	ls' spiritua	developme	nt are likely t
Giving pupils the opportunity to explore values and beliefs, including religious beliefs, and the way in which they impact on peoples' lives;	X			Clear structure of RE lessons, assembly messages, circle time discussions. Children leading parts of assemblies. Visiting guests at assembly wo share their beliefs and religious messages (Christian)
Encouraging pupils to explore and develop what animates themselves and others;	Х			Children given the opportunity to lead own ideas e.g. healthy snack club, Dinglewell's got talent, friendship bracelet stall, sponsored cake making. Choosing homework that plays to strengths
Giving pupils the opportunity to understand human feelings and emotions, the way they impact on people and how an understanding of them can be helpful;	X			Circle time CPSHE Y4 units Pink Curriculum, Cambridge and SEAL programmes Work led by our Pastoral Inclusion Manager with individuals and groups of children helping them to understand how they impact on each other.
Developing a climate or ethos within which all pupils can grow and flourish, respect others and be respected;	Х			Very clear ethos in our school that allows everyone to thrive. Clear school values Displays Celebrated through the whole school and commented on by visitors
Accommodating difference and respecting the integrity of individuals;	Х			Pupils celebrated by staff and each other for their own strengths during celebration Whole staff training on IMPACT (autism awareness) Celebrating different cultures and beliefs through our rich and varied curriculum
Promoting teaching styles which: -Value pupils' questions and give them space for their own thoughts, ideas and concerns; -	Х			VAK learning styles used effectively, teaching reflective and reactive. Pupils happy to share and challenge theirs and others' thinking in lessons. Self-selection of level of task/learning. Class observations show children question and have time for thinking in lessons. Maths – Do it, Stretch it, Deepen it – problem solving, working together.
Enable pupils to make connections between aspects of their learning; -		X		Language of Learning needs to be used throughout whole school, par of SDP focusing on and developed through assembly. Curriculum pathways and learning journeys shared.
Encourage pupils to relate their learning to a wider frame of reference – for example, asking 'why', 'how' and 'where' as well as 'what';		x		This is apparent throughout our curriculum. History and Geography lessons begin with a key question and often leads to other questions asked by children, lessons are based around how to find the answers.
Monitoring in simple, pragmatic ways, the success of what is provided.		X		Targets, Pupil forum and pupil questionnaires carried out by class teachers, SLT, Goverors. Parent questionnaires
Pupils who are morally aware are	likely to be	developing	some or all o	of the following characteristics:
An ability to distinguish right from wrong, based on a knowledge of the moral codes of their own and other cultures;	Х			Clear moral codes shown throughout the school (staff, Pupils and parents). Clear behaviour policy linked to school values with and sanctions
A confidence to act consistently in accordance with their own principles;	Х			Children who have a faith will be confident to share their beliefs during RE lessons Children act in accordance to their own principles and will tell an adulif someone is not acting in the wat they think they should
An ability to think through the consequences of their own and others' actions;	Х			Friendship Club, Circle of friends, Pastoral Inclusion Manager and the Dinglewell Den Anti-bullying two week project, run yearly. Clear rewards and sanctions Clear Values
